Meet our new volunteer instructor Mr.Chris Bentley!

Chris moved to Cascade last winter to be the Cascade District Ranger on the Boise National Forest. He has worked for the U.S. Forest Service in a variety of roles ranging from digital storyteller, graphic designer, program manager, and public affairs officer.

He received his Bachelor's degree in Organizational Behavior from Weber State University in Ogden, Utah where he grew up and later received his Masters in Public Affairs from Indiana University in Bloomington.

In his spare time he loves running, cycling and hiking as well as reading and writing. His second book—Moments of Joy— just came out this month.

You can see Chris at the Cascade Public Library on Saturday, May 20th at 11:00am for his first class. Then every second (Adult Summer Reading) and fourth (Computer 101) Saturday of each month after. Register today!

Saturday, May 20th @ 11am - 12pm	Computer 101
Saturday, June 10th @ 11am - 12pm	Adult Summer Reading
