To join the meeting using your computer

To join the meeting by computer, you must have access to the internet. Please note that wireless internet is provided free of charge from the Library's parking lot.

You can join the online meeting on your computer in one of two ways:

- 1) Link directly to the meeting by clicking on the link below, or copying and pasting the link into your browser window: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/8438443200>
- 2) Go to Zoom.us. Click on "Join a Meeting" from the top right section of the page. When prompted, enter Meeting ID: 843 844 3200.

Other important information about joining this meeting using your computer:

By joining with your computer, you will be able to hear and see what is happening in the meeting, including any documents that might be shared by the meeting host.

If your computer is equipped with a microphone, you will be able to hear, see, and talk all through your computer. If your computer has a camera, you also have the option of joining the meeting on camera so that others can see you as well.

If your computer is not equipped with a microphone, you can still join and hear the meeting but will not be able to speak. You can still ask questions by typing into the "chat" feature.

Alternatively, you have the option of joining the audio portion of the meeting by telephone instead of using your computer's audio. When you are linking into the meeting on your computer, the system will ask if you'd like to use your computer's audio or join by phone. If you choose to join the audio by phone, the system will provide you with a phone number to call.
